From reports many Vermont towns "celebrated" Memorial day this year instead of "observing" it.

It has been said that any man who follows the moral teachings of Roosevelt will make a good citizen, a good husband and a good father. And Theodore Roosevelt practices what he preaches.

The Great Western World's Fair opened in Portland, Ore., June 1st when President Roosevelt pressed the button in Washington. This fair differs in one respect from any other world's fair ever held, it was ready when the time came for opening.

Montpelier voted license and Barre no-license this year, and they are finding it a trifle difficult to play in their own backyards.—St. Johnsbury Republican.

True. But it is our candid opinion that Montpelier will shut her backyard gate and close the "bars" at her next March meeting.

We note that Barton Landing has a new industry, a company having been formed there for crushing trap rock and putting it on the market for pavement and road building purposes.
The people of Barton Landing keep their eyes open for opportunities and know enough to seize them when presented.—Lyndonville Journal.

It has been discovered in Philadelphia that one fourth of the boys in the public schools in that city use tobacco. The matter has been considered so serious that a committee has been appointed to especially look into the evil and suggest a remedy.
With this fact staring Philadelphia mothers in the face we dare say there are few mothers who think their boy is one of the 20,000 in the city using the weed.

"Does it pay to invest in the young manhood of Vermont? A young man at a salary of $50 a month will earn $600 per year. $10,000 invested at 6 per cent will earn $600 per year. A young man who has a wage earning power of $600 per year is worth $10,000 to the community where he lives." This is the suggestion sent out by the State Y. M. C. A. It is certainly worthy of careful consideration.—St. Johnsbury Republican.

THE GREAT JAPANESE VICTORY.

In what has been called the greatest naval battle of the century, the Japanese admiral, Togo, won an overwhelming victory from the Russian general, Rojestvensky, in the Korean straits off the west coast of Japan, Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28.
The Japanese sunk and seized 23 warships, only two Russian vessels escaping. Togo also says he has captured Rojestvensky and eighty other Russian officers with a loss to themselves of but three boats and very few men.
Other reports are abroad about Ro-jestvensky, one Russian report says he is safe at Vladivostok, but severely wounded. Whatever minor details of the battle may be brought out, the fact that the Russian fleet is practically annihilated is certain, and the great battle the world has anxiously been waiting for has taken place with most disastrous results to the Russians.
As soon as the result of the naval battle was known to Field Marshal Oyama of the Japanese land force he prepared to make a general forward movement on the Russian line and a land battle is expected hourly. The outlook for Russia is certainly very unpleasant, with her navy destroyed and her land numbers smaller than those of the Japanese. With these facts in mind, President Roosevelt is renewing his effort to bring about peace, and conferences to that end with diplomatic corps have begun in Washington. It is stated that as soon as the result of the battle was affirmed, Japanese bonds went up with a leap.

THE MARY ROGERS CASE.

Once more Mary Rogers has escaped the gallows. The execution of the death sentence was not carried out on Friday, but Governor Bell granted another reprieve until Friday, June 23, to give counsel for Mrs. Rogers an opportunity to bring their case before the United States Supreme Court in another way.

The petition for a writ of error presented to Chief Judge Rowell and his associates Tuesday evening was Wednesday morning denied upon the ground that in the opinion of the court no federal questions were raised in this petition. T. W. Maloney of Rutland and John H. Senter of Montpelier, counsel for Mrs. Rogers, then announced that they desired to bring another petition covering practically the same ground before a justice of the United States Supreme Court to test the question in another way. Inasmuch as such petition could not be brought before the time set for the execution of the death sentence on Mrs. Rogers, acting on the advice of Chief Judge Rowell and Attorney-General C. C. Fitts, Governor Bell granted another reprieve in order to make sure beyond any possible doubts that no mistakes have been made.

The attorneys for Mrs. Rogers were of the opinion that they ought to have two or three months in which to present this petition to a justice of the United States Supreme Court, but Attorney-General Fitts informed the governor that he believed three weeks was sufficient time. It is probable that the new petition will be presented to Justice Rufus W. Peckham of New York, whose jurisdiction includes the state of Vermont.

Another delicate question arose Wednesday. It appears that the federal statute bearing upon cases like that of Mrs. Rogers provides that the court imposing the death sentence is the only one that can grant a stay of proceedings in a death sentence. Mrs.
Rogers was sentenced at the December term, 1903, of Bennington county court, and that term has been dead a year and a half. The fact that her case was never brought before the supreme court on exceptions makes it a question whether or not the supreme court had the power to grant a stay of proceedings and if they had whether when she is again sentenced, a session of the legislature must intervene. With the governor of the state rests the power to grant a reprieve without coming up against these delicate questions.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

STATE NEWS.

Meeting of Vermont Woman's Suffrage Association.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Vermont Woman's Suffrage Association will be held Wednesday evening and Thursday, June 7 and 8, 1905, at the Universalist church, in Springfield. The program is an excellent one consisting of music, addresses, etc.

Escapes from Industrial School.
Melvin Nelson, a lad of fifteen years, escaped from the state industrial school at Vergennes early Sunday morning. The boy was entered less than a week ago from Cambridge where he was charged with housebreaking. He is about five feet in height, of light complexion, with drooping eyelids and hair cut short.
He formerly lived in Eden, and it is thought that he may have gone to that town. The authorities of the school at Vergennes request that if anyone sees a boy answering to this description they notify them.

Suicide at Bellows Falls.
Mrs. Sidney Perry, well known in club and church circles of Bellows Falls, committed suicide late Monday afternoon by hanging herself. She had been in ill health and despondent for a long time, which is given as the cause for her rash act. Mrs. Perry was 60 years of age. Her husband went to Grafton Monday, but she decided not to accompany him, although she had intended doing so. Upon the arrival for supper at the house of several boarders kept by her, they found nothing prepared and supposed the woman had gone away. When Mr. Perry returned a search was begun at once and the body of the woman was found hanging from a door in the woodshed.

Captain Hadley Resigns.
Special Order, No. 12, issued from the adjutant-general's office at Fair-lee, says Captain N. N. Hadley, quarter-master, First Regiment Vermont National Guard, having tendered his resignation and the same having been accepted to take effect June 1st, 1905, his honorable discharge from the service is hereby announced, and he is placed upon the retired list of the National Guard of Vermont, with the National Guard service. The following appointment in the First Regiment, Vermont National Guard, is announced: Charles F. Burnham to be captain and quartermaster of the First Regiment, V. N. G., in addition to his present duties as ordinance officer.

Keep Thinking about It.
Cough syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Laxative is a laxative, and if it fails to cure to your cough or cold we will pay back your money. H. C. PIERCE, WELLS & WIL-LARD, GLOVER, F. J. KIRBY, H. S. WAT-SON, BARTON LANDING.

The Congregational Convention of Vermont.
The 110th annual meeting of the Congregational convention of Vermont will be held at the Center church, Brattleboro, June 13-15 inclusive.
The program is fresh, well out of the beaten path, and is devoted exclusivly to religious problems of immediate practical interest. Among the subjects treated will be "Christ's Message to the American People," "The Christianizing of America," "The Evangelistic Forward Movement," but a unique feature of the program is the prominence given to work for boys and men. There will be papers on "Boys' Clubs," "Boys' Camps," "Boys' Brigade," "The Chivalric Idea in Work with Boys," and several kin-dered topics. "Men and the Church" is another subject which will receive considerable attention. The program is rich in the lay talent secured, among the speakers being the attorney-general of Vermont, the Hon.
Clark O. Fitts of Brattleboro, S. Hollister Jackson of Barre and Principal E. H. Dorsey of Ludlow. The convention preacher this year is Rev. F.
A. Poole of Barre. The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary union will be held in connection with the convention, commencing Tuesday morning.

THE CHRISTIAN churches at Constantinople, Turkey, and Yokohama, Japan, have long used the Longman & Martinez Paints for painting their churches.
Liberal contributions of L. & M. Paint will be given for such purpose wherever a church is located.
F. M. Scofield Harris Springs, S. C., writes,
"I painted our old nonesied with L. & M. twenty-six years ago. Not painted since, looks better than houses painted in the last four years."
W. B. Barr, Charleston, W. Va., writes,
"Painted Frankenburg Block with L. & M.
Shows better than any buildings here have ever done; stands out as though varnished and actual cost of paint was less than $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold." These celebrated Paints are sold by H. C.
Pierce.

GENERAL NEWS.

Chicago Strike.
There is little prospect for any immediate change in the teamsters' strike situation in Chicago.

Bonaparte at Head of Navy.
Joseph Bonaparte, of Baltimore, will become Secretary of the Navy on July 1, when Paul Morton retires to become the executive head of the new Ryan-McDonald subway syndi-

American Boat Wins.
The three masted schooner Atlantic, William Marshall, of the New York Yacht Club, owner, wins the Kaiser's cup in the ocean yacht race. The Atlantic created a yachting record, crossing in twelve days.

Hurlis Bomb at King of Spain.
As the King of Spain, accompanied by President Loubet, drove away from a gala performance of the opera, in Paris, after midnight Wednesday, an anarchist threw a bomb in the direction of the royal carriage. The projectile struck a soldier belonging to the Cuirasier escort on the shoulder and then fell to the ground and exploded without injuring His Majesty or the president, who continued their drive to the Palais d'Orsay.

LETTER TO GEO. NYE, BARTON, VT.
Dear Sir: It's the same everywhere; can't guess little enough.
Mr. C. O. Brown, Columbia, S. C., employed an experienced painter to paint his house.
The painter on seeing the quantity sent to the house—Devoe—said there wasn't enough.
There were ten gallons left, when the job was done.
It's the common experience.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOR & CO.

BIRD PROTECTION IN VERMONT.

The subject of bird protection is growing more and more interesting in Vermont as the benefits are known to agricultural and horticultural pursuits, says a Brattleboro correspondent. New bird laws are the result of the organization of Audobon societies, and conditions opposed to indiscriminate slaughter of birds have been created by the ceaseless efforts of these societies in educating and interesting the children in the humane methods of caring for and protecting insect-eating and song birds. The report of Mrs. F. K. Barrows of Brattleboro, state secretary of the Vermont Audobon society, to the national association of Audobon societies, shows satisfactory progress along educational lines. Several branch societies have been organized during the year in various sections of the state, the latest of these having been organized in Castleton, Proctor, Essex Junction and Springfield, Williamsville, Putney and Brattleboro having previously organized societies.

The state society has sent its traveling libraries into a number of towns during the past year and these have been the means of disseminating much interesting information among the pupils of the public schools, which has reached the homes with good results. In Brattleboro there has been much individual work, which has induced bird study and protection.
Birds are welcomed to the home in many ways. Houses are built for their occupancy and suitable food is provided to attract them. Last winter, notwithstanding the extreme cold and great depth of snow, flocks of robins were induced to remain here by regular feeding. Teachers in the public schools have encouraged the placing of shelves outside the school windows for the birds, who take their daily luncheons therefrom, to the pleasure and education of the children. The state Audobon society has peculiarly assisted the national organization, while promoting the work, and it is hoped that slides will soon be provided for their stereopi-con lantern, which they have already secured for traveling lectures. Most of the migratory birds have already arrived at Brattleboro, and many of them have, after a short tarry, gone on northward. This fact is clearly determined by the arrival within a few days of the black polls, the most diuturn of the migrators in their journey northward. Some of the varied warblers are the Cape May and Connecticut warblers, which have been seen here this season. A village ordinance has recently been proclaimed, permitting the destruction of English sparrows, and there is a noticeable increase in the number of other birds and greater contentment since the sparrows began to disappear. The song birds have their favorite resorts, and there is something about the large maples and elms of Tyler and Terrace streets which seems to attract a great number of robins, catbirds, brown thrashers, bluebirds, yellow-rumped warbler, waxwing, red-eyed vireo, several species of sparrows, the dove and even the crow, with the screech owl, while from just across the Connecticut comes the chirp of the night hawk and the sweet notes of the whip-poor-will. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Davenport of Brattleboro, one of the directors of the national society of Audobon societies, is actively and enthusiastically engaged in giving public lectures in bird lore.
